Firemen in Fight to Save Own Property

BERKELEY, June 2.—College city firemen failed to save some of their own property yesterday in a blaze which started in a building occupied by the Ashby Mattress Company, 2012 Ashby avenue.
Sparks from the blaze, which started as a result of spontaneous combustion in a floss mattress, spread in a storage shed owned by the fire department adjoining the firehouse of Hose Company No. 5 at Emerson and Tremont streets.
The roof was burned off the shed.
About $1000 damage was done to the mattress factory and to the fire department building. The factory is owned by Albert and Bryan Hansen, brothers, who tried to put out the blaze themselves, but were unsuccessful.

Because of the inflammable nature of the material in the building, the blaze was hard to fight, and dense clouds of smoke attracted a large crowd. The factory is in the center of the Ashby avenue business district.

Alleged Burglars Found in Basement

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Three alleged burglars were found by Co-poral J. M. Sullivan and a posse of officers hiding in a basement on Naples street early today and booked at the Ingleside police station. They gave their names as David McTur-21, George Hogan, 22, and Joseph Holloran, 20.

When the officers descended to the cellar they found an empty mattress, which was hidden in a bedroom. The men were found identified as having been a part of lost taken yesterday from the soft drink parlor of Charles Silva, 4701 Mission street. The suspects were charged with burglary, malicious mischief and vagrancy.

California May Get Part of Yuma, Ariz.

SACRAMENTO, June 2.—California's map may be changed. The surveyor must make a survey of the eastern boundary of our state near the Gila river of Arizona in an effort to determine just where the state line lies between Arizona and California.

It is believed by exponents of the Deal bill, which was signed by Governor Stephens last night, that the result of the survey will be that California will annex some new territory, up to the main street of Yuma, Arizona. Those who have studied old documents of the state believe that the maps are all wrong and that all grants will give California more territory.

100 ARE KILLED, $1,500,000 LOSS IN RACE RIOTS

Order Is Restored in Tulsa, Okla., After 24 Hours of Street Fighting.

TULSA, Okla., June 2.—Grand jury investigation into Wednesday's race riots here was ordered today by Governor J. B. A. Robertson.
Prince Freeling, attorney-general, will be in charge of the investigation to fix blame for the actual killing of 100 persons and the arson which brought destruction to 8000 negroes and 5000 whites.

Race hatred, which flared up for twenty-four hours, costing nearly 100 lives and $1,500,000 property damage, was burned out today.

Whites, who fought a furious battle with practically the entire male negro population, centered their efforts on finding shelter for the 10,000 negroes who were homeless when the towns were destroyed.

Although rumors flooded the city throughout the night of negroes congregating in the outskirts to make a massed effort to liberate their prisoners, investigation by state troops proved the reports unfounded.

REPELLED BY WOODS.
Negroes who fled the city when the clothing began Tuesday night, drifted back today with tales of pitiful stories of how they were hidden in the woods north of the city without food or water for nearly two days.

Partners rounded-up many fleeing negroes and took them to the detention camps.

Emotionally the entire negro population spent the night under guard.
Men, women and children were herded together in public buildings. Four thousand negroes spent the night at the fairgrounds.

A complete survey of military law enforcing the outbreak was marked with a very short time after martial law was declared, the situation was under control.

Throughout the night, big motor trucks on which dangerous looking guns were mounted, patrolled the empty streets which had been cleared of civilians at 9 p. m.

15,000 ARE HOMELESS.
A campaign to raise money for relief of the negroes was under way today. Several thousand dollars had already been subscribed.

The fire which destroyed the negro district played a havoc with the swept the homes of whites in its path.
In addition to the 8000 negroes made homeless by the blaze, approximately 1000 white lost everything they owned.

Dick Rowland, the negro whose alleged mistreatment of Sara Page led to rumors of an attempted lynching, was smuggled from the city soon after the rioting started. The negroes made a drive on the jail to release Rowland when the reports of whites gathering to lynch him spread among them.

Sarah Page could not be found.
Neighbors, however, said they saw bruises on her arms and other parts of her body.

Thirteen white men were arrested in the night after today. It was said all men had in their possession property which apparently had been taken from houses which the flames did not reach but from which the negro occupants fled in terror. Many such houses were entered, according to guardsmen.

FRIENDLY ACT LANDS CYCLIST IN POLICE TOILS

BERKELEY, June 2.—Leonard Bryant, 20-year-old mechanic of 2001 Durant avenue, won't try playing the Good Samaritan for a friend again.

A fine of $1 each on three counts of violation of motor traffic laws was imposed on Bryant today by Judge Robert Edgar. A fourth and more serious count,
that of speeding, was continued until Monday by the judge for sentence.

Bryant was arrested by Patrolman Henry Hoot while he was trying out a motorcycle for a friend on Durant avenue.

The motorcycle bore no license, plates, Bryant had no operator's license and was driving with an open muffler. Besides, Patrolman Hoot says he was going at an excessive rate of speed.

the charge of murder in the second degree.

Fresno Man Held For Attacks, Is Believed Insane

Girl Drives Him From House
With Pistol; Is Held for Examination.

RIPON, June 2.—After attempting to attack several high school girls and being driven out of the home of Miss Grace Garrett, a young man giving the name of Ralph Haight, claiming to come from Fresno, was arrested and taken to Stockton, where he is under observation to determine his sanity. He approached several young women, asked them some inconsequential questions and then attempted to embarrass them by walking into the home of Miss Garrett, where he attempted to attack Miss Garrett. She caught up a revolver and drove him from the premises. He was then taken into custody and held until Deputy Sheriffs Koblitz and Orschler arrived from Stockton. The officers say he is undoubtedly insane.

SLAYER OF WIFE, STEPCHILD, TO HANG TOMORROW

SACRAMENTO, June 2.—Geo.
Williams, convicted of slaying his wife and stepdaughter in San Francisco in February, 1920, will be hanged at San Quentin prison tomorrow unless extenuating circumstances or positive proof of the condemned man's insanity are laid before Governor William D. Stup-pines today.

Governor Stephens will not exercise executive clemency and commune Williams' sentence to life imprisonment in view of the present evidence, it was learned from an authoritative source today.

Williams was confined to the death cell last night and only in extraordinary cases do prisoners overlook the gallows. Four days after they have once been placed there.

Geddes Would Unite Nations, Force Peace

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 2.—The English-speaking people of the world should be "banded together in leadership of all the nations to the end of world peace, and as a first step to the end in which the wars which even now we can recognize as futile and unnecessary, are done with forever," Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, said in an address here today at Centennial exercises of the University of Virginia.

"What is to hinder their co-operation to this great end?" he asked.
"Nothing that I know of but the ignorance of each other's ideals and aspirations and the suspicion that is the child of ignorance."

M. F. O'DONOGHUE, STATE SOCIETY FOUNDER, DEAD

Was Graduate of U. C. and Active in Welfare of U. S.
Employees.

Word was received here today of the death at Washington, D. C., on May 18, of Michael F. O'Donoghue, founder of the Liberty of California, for a number of years an examiner in the United States Patent Office and president emeritus of the California State Association of Employees. O'Donoghue died at the Providence hospital, Washington, after an illness of six weeks.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs.
Marion O'Donoghue, of the California State society, both in Washington. He was for some time president of the Federation of State societies, and was a prominent figure in the state of California, where he had been elected in Franklin square in that city. During the war he was one of the four-minute men speaking the state of California.

He was born in Ireland, June 15, 1856. He was educated in public schools and later became a teacher.
He went to Winnipeg, Man., when a young man, and later to this State, where he taught a school for several years. O'Donoghue studied the law and received his degree at the University of California. He later went to Canada, where he was for two years private secretary to John Costigan, master of inland revenues.

Later he went to Washington and was a law clerk for two years in the navy department. He was transferred to the General Land office, where he remained four years. He entered the real estate business, but later he returned to government service as an examiner in the patent office. He received his degree as master of patent laws from George Washington University.

It was largely due to O'Donoghue's efforts that the retirement law for government employees was adopted by Congress and put into effect.
Funeral services were held May 20.

RADICAL CHANGES IN TAXES URGED IN NEW BILLS

Minnesota Congressman Proposes New Methods of Obtaining Revenue.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Four revenue bills which would provide radical changes in the present taxation system were introduced in the House today by Representative Kel-lor, Republican, of Minnesota.
The first bill would repeal all existing transportation and sales tax, except those on tobacco, spirits, oleomargarine, drugs and products of child labor. It also would repeal the excess profits tax and the 10 per cent tax on corporations.

The second bill would amend the income tax law so as to distinguish between "earned" and "unearned" income. The tax on "earned" income is cut in two. Earned income is defined as income derived from personal service or personally conducted business, while "unearned" income is defined as income derived from rents of property, interest of mortgages, notes, bonds, dividends on stock and from "any source other than the labor, skill or business personally conducted of the person receiving the income."

The third bill amends the inheritance tax. Beginning with estates of $20,000 to $36,000, there would be a tax of 1 per cent, graduated up to 5 per cent on inheritances between $150,000 and $250,000. The taxes then graduate upward until the point of $100,000,000 is reached, after which the tax would be 20 per cent.

The fourth bill would put a tax of 1 per cent on land values in excess of $10,000, exempting buildings, improvements, etc.

England Plans to Help Greeks, She Tells Turks

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, June 2.—Great Britain has sent a communication to the Turkish Nationalist government in Angora asking it to give up the British prisoners held by the Nationalists, declaring the British were preparing to blockade the Anatolian ports, take over the command of the eleventh Greek division in Is-mit and otherwise support the Greeks against the Nationalists.

It is thought here, however, that the request comes too late, as the British are considered virtually at war with the Nationalists.

Moving Picture Machine Not Invention of Any One Man

The movies, that universally popular topic, came in for its share of queries today at the hands of The TRIBUNE's readers. Among the questions put to The TRIBUNE's Information Bureau today was the following: "Who invented the moving picture machine?"

There seems to be a general impression that Thomas A. Edison invented the moving picture machine, but this is not true. Thomas Edison did not invent the moving picture machine nor even the "vitascope," although the latter bore his name. The vitascope was invented by a treasury department clerk. The principal of the moving picture dates back to the time, 65 years ago, when the Roman, Lucullus, discovered the phenomenon of the persistence of vision. The invention of the moving picture cannot be attributed to any one man. It was the result of centuries of development. Some of the forerunners of the modern

Rainfall During May Was .15 Inches

May was an uneventful month so far as local weather is concerned, it would appear from the monthly meteorological summary of the Chabot Observatory, Leona Heights, issued today by Professor Charles Burkhalter.

In the seven rainy days of the month, the total rainfall was .15 inches. The coldest day of the month was May 3, when the minimum temperature was 49.5. The maximum temperature was 61.1 and the maximum humidity was 73. May 11 has more meteorological points to its score than any other day as it was the warmest day, had the greatest variation between high and low temperature and the lowest humidity of any day in the month. West was the prevailing wind direction but even the wind was not active during the month, for the maximum velocity recorded was 20 miles an hour.

You may have tried scores of so-called "cures" and they only cost you money. Now get our idea—with a positive guarantee to refund your money if you are not fully satisfied—try CRANOLENE TREATMENT.

PIONEER WOMAN'S FUNERAL IS HELD

Funeral services for Mrs. Ellen N. Rosborough, widow of the late Judge A. M. Rosborough, pioneer Oakland resident and mother of Alexander J. Rosborough and Postmaster Joseph J. Rosborough, were held this morning from St. Anthony's church in East Oakland. Mrs. Rosborough died at her home, 2631 Nineteenth avenue, Tuesday night. She was 77 years old.

The Rosboroughs established their residence in Oakland in 1879. As a young woman, Mrs. Rosborough came to California by way of the Isthmus of Panama, arriving in San Francisco on July 4, 1881. The following year she married Judge Rosborough of the Ninth District Court of California in Yreka. For forty-one years she has lived in the same house in East Oakland. When her daughter died, Mrs. Rosborough assumed charge of the two grandchildren, Robert Gardiner and Alex. Gardiner, who survive her. Mrs. Rosborough was a member

The soft drink parlor of Manuel Franco, 153 Fifth street, was raided and twenty-five gallons of jackass brandy seized.

WEEKS APPROVES TRAINING CAMPS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Approval of the work of establishing citizens' military training camps at the Presidio at San Francisco and at Camp Lewis, near Tacoma, is expressed in a letter received from Secretary of War Weeks by the Citizens' Military Training Camps Association.

The letter says: "I am keenly interested in the future of these camps and hope to see the annual attendance increase from our modest start this year to approximately 150,000, as the training given at these camps will be a distinct national asset, both from a military and commercial viewpoint. The strict military training to be conducted will return to civil life men who have been given an understanding of the military profession and of the true meaning of discipline and, above all, of their obligation to the government. This training will develop the young men mentally, morally and physically. It will be of great assistance to the Americanization of our foreign born and will teach good citizenship to all fortunate enough to attend. Should we again be compelled to mobilize our national resources for war, the presence of this large number of partially trained men in civil life will be of enormous value in building our regular army. National Guard and organized reserves to war strength. "Aside from the question of national defense, the training to be given at these camps will develop the young men along lines that will better fit them to meet the demands of commercial life and thus assist our nation to hold its position as one of the leaders of the world."

ALTERNATIVE IS NOT UNDERSTOOD, BUT VOTED FOR

Laughable Incidents Occur
When Lions Club Goes
On Record.

After sixty-seven of the eighty men who attended the Lions Club luncheon at Hotel Oakland yesterday confessed that they did not understand anything about the alternative proposal for city and county consolidation, the club, without a dissenting voice, went on record as being for it, a large number of those present refraining from voting.

The confusion came after Ben Shapiro introduced the subject, and after one of the thirteen who admitted a knowledge of the subject qualified his admission by saying that he did not know much.

"I wish I had a resolution ready to read," said Shapiro, "but as I have not, I will make the simple motion that the Lions Club go on record as supporting the alternative proposal."

Shapiro made no attempt to enlighten the members and sat down without any word of explanation. To clear up the fog of ignorance which, he intimated, was hanging as thick as the tobacco smoke, J. Cal Ewing took the floor.

NOT UNDERSTOOD. "Now I do not understand a thing about this alternative question," said Ewing, "and I wonder how many of you know what it is all about."

There were a number who called out "No!" and "Leave me out," and the president, Leroy Goodrich, in the interests of a statistical record of the club's understanding called for a standing expression.

"All of those who know anything about the alternative plan," said Goodrich, "will please rise."

Thirteen out of the eighty responded to the loud applause of the seated sixty-seven.

Among those who stood was W. H. Strel, and it was he who was signaled by Goodrich for the task of explaining the intricacies of the proposal.

"Mr. Strel," said Goodrich, "will explain in detail just what the alternative proposal is."

Loud shouts greeted the announcement and a louder roar when he began.

"I don't know very much about it," ASKED TO EXPLAIN. Strel said that while he didn't understand the alternative, it was his opinion that if a man did not vote for it he might as well not vote, for somebody would be put without the proposal. When he sat down Ewing again addressed the president.

"Will you please explain to me," he said, "what Strel has been talking about? I don't understand a thing he said."

Goodrich did not undertake the task and, instead, the vote on the Shapiro motion was put.

To the question of supporting the alternative there was a mild response of "ayes" and no one answered in opposition. A large number did not vote.

The club heard a musical program before the "confession meeting" and afterward were treated to a motion picture showing the construction of the Great Western Power Company's

Profits of Drama Given for Relief

St. Mary's contribution to the American fund being raised for the relief of the Irish people, a check for $1724.25, was turned over today to Hugh Hogan, Alameda county campaign chairman, by Brother Gregory, president of the college.

This donation, made on behalf of the college faculty and the student body, is the largest made in the county.

The St. Mary's check represents the proceeds of "Dante, the Wing-Bearer," a romantic drama, written by Brother Leo, and produced recently in San Francisco and Oakland by St. Mary's thespians.

The author penned the play in tribute to the Florentine poet.

The play will be presented in San Francisco for a second time next September, during the universal observance of the sixteenth anniversary of Dante's death.

because it was just the place we wished for our home, and because I knew our property was bound to increase in value," said one business man.

"Some friends of mine bought an acre in Piedmont in 1905—before it was subdivided—for $1500. Today, cut up into lots, with full city improvements, their land is worth $18,000."

History repeats itself. Montclair, within the city limits of Oakland, just east of Piedmont and south of Claremont, is the next high grade district to be built up. It is now building up.

SCHOOL CHIEFS MAKE 35 RUNS IN 4 INNINGS

Educators, once thought the meekest and mildest of citizens, developed a streak of tigerish ferocity yesterday when the school principals played the news writers at Bay Shore Park, and when the awful sight was over, the score stood 35 to 0 against the scribes at the end of four innings.

The news writers, blame it on the wind. Also, the sun was in their eyes. Commissioner Morse of the Department of Public Health and Safety was one of the umpires. In remarking on the game he would only say it was "too bad." A move- ment was made to induce Presi- dent John F. Chaney to be the second umpire but he refused to have anything to do with the game after he had seen it for one minute.

The educators first at bat, knocked out ten or twelve runs right at the start. Pitcher Huber, for the teachers, then struck out most of the scribes in rapid suc- cession. The "sporting news" of the news writers were Scott Johannes- sen, Donovan and Bailey, who ac- tually hit the ball.

Game was finally called on ac- count of darkness.

The public, as usual, is invited to join the party, and motorists can make their way to the lake and their guests on Decoration day when they made the ascent of Mount Diablo, in spite of the many weather. Although a public highway, Contra Costa is pre- mised by a local paper filed to materialize at the last moment sup- plies were secured in time and all were provided for at cost by the leaders, acting as the enterers.

John J. Hunt, 814 Jefferson street, reported to the police that his room was entered some time during the night and clothing and jewelry val- ued at $150 was taken.

Former San Leandro Girl Declares Husband Could Not Support Her.

Like a plot in a movie thriller reads the divorce complaint filed in Oakland by Mrs. Ethel Stewart against Donald L. Stewart. How she was kidnapped and threatened with death by her husband after she had left him when she discovered he could not support her was charged by Mrs. Stewart, a former San Leandro girl.

They were married on April 20, 1920, the complaint stated, and shortly after the honeymoon went to Fresno where Mrs. Stewart learned that her husband was unable to support her. She returned to friends in San Leandro immediately, she said.

One afternoon a short time later her husband went for her driving up to her home in a new auto- mobile. When she stepped into the car the husband speeded up the car toward Hayward and when she de- clared, after which he turned the car toward Oakland.

She went to a restaurant in Oak- land and while there she managed to tell the waiter that she was dining there against her will. By calling the husband on a telephone, she said, the waiter managed to get Mrs. Stewart out of the restaurant through the back door where he gave her refuge.

The next day the complaint alleged, the husband went to the wife's home and attempted to make her accompany him and only left after she had called Marshal J. P. Peralta. She asks a divorce without alimony.

Trial for Shooting Will Start Monday

RICH IMPORTER IS SUED FOR $50,000 FOR HEART BALM

Divorcee Says Charles H.
Teaff Promised for 20 Yrs.
He Would Wed Her.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Mrs. Aida Laurie Pike, 702 Ashbury street, has filed suit for $50,000 heart balm against Charles Harrison Teaff, wealthy importer, now in Yokohama, whose engagement to Mrs. Anna Voorhies Bishop, prominent society woman, was announced last week at an elaborate luncheon. Mrs. Voorhies is on her way to Japan where she and Teaff will be married.

In her suit filed in the superior court Mrs. Pike asserts that she has been living with Teaff for the last twenty years upon his continued promises to marry her. She declared that the first information she had that Teaff had decided not to marry her was in a letter received from him May 3 from Yokohama.

Shortly after she had been di- vorced from her husband when she was only eighteen years of age, she met Teaff, she declared, and from that time on, the wealthy importer wooed her and promised to marry her. Mrs. Pike is thirty-eight years of age while Teaff is forty-five. Mrs. Pike told her attorney that she had more than 300 letters from Teaff in which he always emphatically de- clared he would marry her.

Mrs. Bishop, fiancée of Teaff, is the sister of Mrs. Kate Voorhies Castle and Mrs. Haldeman Putnam Young. She is the daughter of Mrs. Alfred Hunter Voorhies.

Trained Nurse So Nervous Felt Like Screaming

Feels fine after taking Neal-Tone

"About three months ago I con- tracted bronchial pneumonia. When I began to recover I was very weak and extremely nervous. The ner- vousness was so extreme that I often felt like screaming. For weeks after leaving the hospital I didn't improve. No appetite, little sleep, and terribly weak. A friend who had used Neal-Tone suggested that I try it. I noticed an improvement after the first three doses. My ap- petite returned, the nervousness dis- appeared entirely, and after taking it for a month I have gained ten pounds and feel perfectly well. I earnestly recommend Neal-Tone to nervous, rundown people."—Edith Henniford.
If you are nervous, exhausted and out of sorts, take Neal-Tone. Your money refunded if you don't feel better. For TRIAL PACKAGE AND BOOK- LET send 10c to Neal-Tone Co., or W. S. Walling, 560 Rapp Bldg., San Francisco, Calif.

HIS BREAKFAST IS BIG MEAL NOW

"Tanlac has built me up ten pounds in weight and got me to feeling better than I have in years," said J. W. Compton, a letter carrier, residing at 5832 Compton Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.

"For four years I was completely out of condition, not to say sick, but felt tired out all the time. Had no appetite or pep, and was so weak many days I could hardly do my work. For months and months I never had a mouthful of breakfast, and would go to work feeling so tired I could hardly get along."

"I took medicine until I was dis- couraged for nothing, helped me. Not long back I got reading about Tanlac, and got a bottle. Well, I soon began to eat and sleep better, and so I kept taking it until now I feel fine and am on the job feeling so well I don't have a bit of trouble in getting through. Tanlac proved to be just the thing for me, and I feel sure it will help anyone needing something to build them up."

Tanlac is sold in Oakland by The Owl Drug Company and leading druggists.—Advertisement

WOMAN SICK FOUR YEARS

Was Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Stevens, Miss.—"I was all run down and nervous with female troubles and my sides pained me so at times that I could hardly walk. I suffered for four years with this. Then I saw your advertisement in the papers and I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel stronger and am able to do most of my housework now. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use this letter if you care to do so."—Mrs. W. H. Blake, Route 1, Stevens, Miss.

Many women, overworked, tired and ailing, keep up the ceaseless treadmill of their daily duties until they are afflicted with female troubles as Mrs. Blake was, and are run down, weak and nervous. But every such woman should be convinced by the many letters like hers which we are constantly publishing, proving be- yond question that Lydia E. Pink- ham's Vegetable Compound will overcome such troubles, and write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., in regard to their health.

(Toilet Tips)
A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growth is as follows: Wash your face with some powdered detolene and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harm- less and seldom requires repeat- ing, but to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genu- ine detolene. Mix fresh as wanted.—Advertisement.

Theater

ORPHEUM

Comedy in a large measure is promised on the new bill that will be presented at the Oakland Orpheum for the week beginning with the matinee next Sunday afternoon. Three headline acts including the famous "Three Kings" and "The Three Kings" will be included in the new bill.

It is a comedy, "The Blue Streak of Vaudeville" will be at the top of the bill. Sidney Grant, musical comedy star, comes to the Orpheum with an array of songs and stories.

"Mind Your Business" is the title of a snappy comedy offering by Hugh Herbert.

Paul Morton and Naomi Glass will be retained for a second week. Texas Walker and Augustus Welles, in "Sunshine and Smiles" have a novelty offering that is certain to please and Lawrence and Harvey, Australian duo of dancers will be on the program. Vera Berlier, frequently called the "Kubelick in Politics" will be a contributor to the musical division of the new bill.

Films will include the latest Pathé News and Topics of the Day.

FULTON

"The Ruined Lady" is to be the last play in which Nana Bryant and Cliff Thompson are to appear with the Fulton Players during their brief spring season, which begins next Sunday afternoon. Miss Bryant is to return next fall, according to the Fulton management, but will give away next week to Maude Fulton's summer season.

In the character of "Anne"—good old "Anne"—as she is affectionately referred to throughout the play—Miss Bryant will portray a girl who is lovable and desirable in every way, but who has become such a common place fixture in the life of her male neighbor, whose youngsters she really brings up, that he gets into the slippers and fireplace stage, and takes her too much for granted. This is all wrong, and "Anne" is all right, friends advise her of that fact. They also advise her to wake up this slow-witted party by making him believe that he has hopelessly compromised her during a midnight adventure. The cards are therefore "stacked" against this duped gent, but in the end he finds his way safely out of the underbrush, and emerges triumphantly after proposing to "Anne" and receiving her timid consent to become his bride.

AMERICAN

William Farum, in "His Greatest Specimen" is the feature on the double bill at the American this week, with a special added attraction in the training films of Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier. The other feature is Buck Jones with Helen Ferguson in "Just Pals."

The Dempsey-Carpentier offering was obtained by Rex Midgley, now in the East looking over modern theater construction, and hurried to the American by airplane mail in time of opening Sunday.

Several very notable attractions are booked for the next few weeks at the American. Zane Grey's story, "The Man of the Forest," is another special feature soon to be seen.

John Wharry Lewis' orchestra and Edgar Bayliss at the organ offer the musical features.

KINEMA

Dorothy Dalton, back on the screen in a role similar to that which made her famous in "The Flame of the Yukon" heads the week's bill at the Kinema Theater in "The Idol of the North."

Mack Sennett's newest comedy, "Astro from the Steeple," adds most of the mirth to the program, with Mutt and Jeff in animated antics helping to keep the audiences good-natured. Another interesting feature is the real bird neighbors, "Fighters of the Paravolans."

Beginning Saturday, the Kinema's

MACARTHUR

"The Red Viper," a picture dealing with the dangers of anarchy and the attempts of the anarchists to get a foothold in the United States, is the feature at the MacArthur theater this week, where it is topping a six-act vaudeville bill.

The new program, which started Sunday for the week, starts daily at noon, continues until 11 o'clock.

Next Sunday a new offering will be presented in "A Man From Nowhere," billed as a red-blooded story. The picture features Jack Hoxie.

program will be headed by "Sacred and Profane Love," with Miss Ferguson playing the same role she played on the speaking stage in Arnold Bennett's story. Conrad Nabel plays opposite Miss Ferguson.

T. & D.

"The Woman in His House," starring Mildred Harris, will be continued for the balance of the week at the T. and D. Theater. Mildred Harris has never essayed a more convincing role. It is a portrayal that gives her rank with emotional stars of the day.

Bert Lyell is giving a characterization to Richard Ganthony's stage figure of Richard Parker in "A Message from Mars." Ganthony's story, that of the supernatural idler who needed an apparition of his better self to guide him, is finely handled by Lyell.

LOEW'S STATE

J. Warren Kerrigan's "The Coast of Opportunity," adapted from the novel by Page Phillips, is being given its premiere showing at Loew's State Theater.

Kerrigan is supported in this picture by a group of players headed by Fritz Brunette. The direction is by Ernest C. Wards and Jack Cunningham wrote the continuity.

"Topnotching the varieties are Lew Seymour and his four "Tyes" in "The Love Lawyer"; Coscia and Verdi, the violin and cello boys, in "A Musical Divertissement"; Ralph Searby, who draws while he chats and sings; Frank and Graela de Mont in nonsensicalities, and Jussi and Ossi, athletes.

PANTAGES

Miss Vera McCord, producer of "The Good-Bad Wife" at the Pantages this week, is a native Californian, and comes from an Oakland family here. Miss McCord appeared in many private theatricals both here and in San Francisco and was known as a pleasing reader. As far as known Vera McCord is the only Oakland woman producer of moving picture drama.

The vaudeville act at the Pantages this week includes Lottie Mayer and her diving girls, Louise Hamilton and Wm. Mack in a novelty singing and dancing act, the Hickman Bros., blackface funsters; Cecil Engle and Hazel Marshall, a duo of clever girls; Leland and Lida, Bobwell, singer and artist.

NEW FRANKLIN

Sir James M. Barry's "Sentimental Tommy"—the much-talked-of, John S. Robertson production which eastern reviewers have hailed as the most notable work of an American producer so far, will conclude its run at the New Franklin theater on Friday night, and on Saturday will be followed by the massive foreign production, "Deception."

"Sentimental Tommy" is at the head of another many-featured New Franklin program, including Larry Semon's "The Bakery," color reels showing the Victory Parade in Paris, of 1919; Sandy Donaldson, Orpheum headliner, singing Harry Ladd's songs and an unusual collection of hair-raising incidents, "Thrills."

"Deception" is the story of Anna Boleyn and her romance with King Henry VIII. It is played by Henry Porten, the second Bernhard, Emil Jennings, the American actor who was the king in "Passion," and a cast comprising 7000 persons.

BROADWAY

Stewart Edward White's strange jungle story, "The Leopard Woman," comes to the Broadway theater today for a two-day presentation.

"The Leopard Woman" was one of White's magazine successes. In Louise Glaum, the producers have hit upon a prototype of the character White conjured in his mind. The portrayal permits Louise Glaum to give her finest characterization and at the same time wear some daring costumes. Buck Jones is on the same program in "Firebrand Treason."

Tom Mix follows next Sunday in "Prairie Trails" while early presentation of "Outside the Law," Priscilla Dean's success, and Clara Kimball

Young in "Straight from Paris" are announced by the management.

CHIMES

William De Mille's production "Midsummer Madness" with Lila Wilson, Lila Lee, Jack Holt and Conrad Nagel will be the feature at the Chimes theater commencing today. It is an adaptation of Cosmo Hamilton's novel, "His Friend and His Wife." The picture portrays the rivalry of the moneyed infatuation of a pretty woman, whose husband neglects her for another man. Mistakenly are complicated by the fact that her admirer is her husband's closest friend and also the husband of her girl chum.

ARCADIA

As a compliment to Professor Stech, who after several years in the Bay city theaters, joined the ranks of the jazzers when he took charge of the Arcadia orchestra, this will be Stech night at the dancing pavilion. A special program of music has been arranged by Professor Stech.

Stech and he will also play any number of records. The program will be presented to all Thursday night of next week, with the Northern California Beaters' Night.

Parole Report Shows

Many Prisoners Free
SACRAMENTO, June 2.—Nearly 24 per cent of the 2743 prisoners registered at Folsom and San Quentin penitentiaries are out on parole, the report of E. H. Whyte, state parole officer, shows. The exact number paroled is 394.

Fifty-six were paroled in April and of these twelve violated their parole, according to the report, two by committing crimes and others by failing to report or not complying with other requirements.

Whyte's report shows paroled men earned $67,022.16 in April, of which they saved $16,770.54. Nearly $900 men have been paroled since 1929, when the parole law became effective.

Why Castoria?

YEARS ago Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups were the remedies in common use for infants and children. Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing Opium in one form or another, but so disguised as to make them pleasant to the taste, yet really to stupify the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.

It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, received the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.

A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy that she would use for herself, without consulting a physician.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher.

If the film is poorly developed, the picture is lost forever as it is almost impossible to get a good print from a poorly developed film.
If you value your pictures, take no chances with the printing and developing.

Generally acknowledged that you get the best results possible from all negatives that are brought to us and it is almost universally agreed that you get perfect and perfect Kodak work when you bring or mail good undeveloped films to us.
Every film is individually handled by an expert, who for years has handled work of this kind and knows how to get the most out of every exposure.
In turn the printing is done by an expert whose work is checked and inspected before it is offered to you.
Be sure to take plenty of films with you and remember you can return all unused prints to us when you come back from your trip.

With Rangers in Summer Campaign.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Men of the air service flying government airplanes began gathering today at four California bases, Corning, Mather Field, Visalia and March Field, for the coming summer's work of patrolling the timber lands of the state for forest fires. It was announced from the office of the chief of the air service of the Western Department here today, "By July 1, at the latest, regular daily patrols from the four posts will have been started and will continue throughout the summer months until October 1 or 15.

Members of the air service fire patrol will co-operate with the forest rangers in the work. It was announced, the air service furnishing the planes and men for reporting in the fires and the forest service furnishing men to fight the flames. There will be a liaison officer at each base to facilitate the transaction of business and the handling of fire reports.

NEW STATIONS.

Fourteen new receiving stations will be established this summer in California to handle wireless messages regarding forest fires from government airplanes patrolling the forests of the state. The new stations will be located at Sisson, Weaver, Mineral, Alder Springs, Quincy, Santa Barbara, Orleans, Nevada City, Placerville, Sonoma, Northfork, Hot Springs, Los Angeles and Yreka. In addition there will be a radio station at the main bases at Corning, Mather Field, March Field and Visalia.

The patrol in the state will be handled by the Ninth Aero Squadron and will be under command of Captain John Walsh.

The plane patrols have been apportioned as follows:

Mather Field—Two daily patrols, one eastward and one northward, including all the territory around Lake Tahoe.

Visalia—Two daily patrols, one to the north over the Sierras and one to the southeast to Chowchilla. Seven planes and twenty men will be included as a part of the patrol.

March Field—Two daily patrols, one to the west and the other north toward Santa Barbara.

Corning—Three patrols, one to the west over the California national forest, the second over the Trinity and Mammoth national forests, and the third to the northeast over Lassen and Modoc forests.

College students, doing summer work who are qualified radio operators will be used as radio operators at the wireless bases, it was announced.

Girl Gets Job; China Tradition Smashed

CANTON, June 2.—Perhaps as an outcome of a movement started early this year by Chinese women's organizations in Canton to open avenues of employment hitherto closed to women, the national assembly of the southern government has given a job to a girl. This is a clerkship and the first in Canton, if not in all China, to be given to a woman. Miss So Kan, the appointee, has been assigned to a post in connection with publication of parliamentary regulations. In response to action taken by Chinese women's clubs the Canton-Sanshue Railway has sanctioned a plan to employ girls, while the Canton Telephone Company also is planning to include women in its working staff.

VALIDITY OF PARR
TERMINAL LEASE
TO BE SETTLED

Test Suit Is Brought to Ascertain Status of Ownership In Lands Involved.

The legality of the Parr Terminal company's lease on the Oakland waterfront will be established in court as the result of a suit filed yesterday against the city of Oakland in which Fred D. Parr demands that the city produce all its claims that a lease given to the company in 1918 is void. It has been often asserted by Commissioner Frederick Soderberg, Parr states in his suit, that the lease was not legal, and it is the purpose of the suit to disprove these statements "on order that a $20,000,000 investment in the Parr Terminal may be made possible."

It is claimed by Parr that some of the largest shipping men in the United States are interested in the Parr Terminal and that such men as Robert Dollar and others are waiting to invest in the enterprise, but that no money could be made until all legal objections were cleared away. The complaint cites that the original lease was given to the Parr-McCormick Steamship company, later sold to the Parr Terminal company. Only $25,000 was to be invested in the wharf that was already there, Parr states, but the sum of $140,000 has been spent since that wharf alone. He also states that other improvements amounting to more than $1,000,000 have been made.

There are two strips of land involved, worth several millions of dollars. The original lease called for the second parcel of land to be made into a shipyard, but this was later changed when the war ended. The petition prays that the city of Oakland be declared to have no interest in the land excepting its ownership subject to the leasehold interest of Parr. Parr asks that the city be restrained from again asserting that the lease is void.

SOLDIER RELIEF
BILLS EXPLAINED

Explanation of the soldiers' relief bill, sponsored by the American Legion and introduced in Governor Stephens, was made in a statement issued today by Fred Behergall, state adjutant of the Legion, which pointed out that all veterans will have to be patient until such time as the governor appoints the Veterans' Welfare Board to handle all appeals for aid under the new laws.
The bill provides relief for ex-service men and women and Legion headquarters has been deluged with inquiries from veterans who wish to take advantage of the land settlement, farm and home purchase and vocational educational acts. The statement follows:
"The land settlement act, the farm and home purchase act and the educational measure, all carrying a total of $2,500,000, have been signed by the Governor and will not go into effect until ninety days, at which time the Veterans' Welfare Board of five members will be appointed by the Governor.
"The bond issue bill, which provides for the submission of a bond issue of $10,000,000 further to carry out the work of land settlement and farm and home aid, has also been approved by the Governor and will be voted upon by the people at the election in November of 1922.
"Other acts approved by the Governor provide for training of widows and dependents of those who died in the service, and the wives or dependents of men who have been disabled as a result of service. A fund of about $30,000 a year will be available for this fund.

Woman Is Freed of Slander Charge
SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Ten minutes of deliberation was required by a jury in Judge Deasy's court yesterday to decide that Mrs. Georgeette Bradley, apartment house owner and wife of Richard Bradley, capitalist, had not slandered Miss Elizabeth McCabe, who was suing for $15,000 damages.
Miss McCabe alleged in her suit that she had lost her position with a local fruit company and had been ejected from several apartment houses as the result of accusations by Mrs. Bradley that she had been too friendly with Bradley. Mrs. Bradley admitted on the stand that she had made the assertions, but that she was justified in so doing. She testified that on several occasions she had gone to an apartment occupied by Miss McCabe and heard her husband's voice.
Bradley admitted on the stand that he had taken Miss McCabe to places of amusement, but maintained that he had never been guilty of misconduct.

Police Investigate
Blaze in Laundry

A fire of mysterious origin which started in the office of the Oakland Laundry Company at 739 Twenty-ninth street is being investigated by the police. Camilla B. Calton, who is vice-president of the company and lives upstairs over the plant, was awakened by his wife, who smelled the smoke. They both ran out of the house and found the entire front of the building afire. The quick work of the fire department saved the building, which at one time was endangered. The damage is estimated to be about $500. Calton thinks the fire started from a package of laundry that some one dropped through the front door.

Fugitive Convict Is Caught in San Rafael

SAN RAFAEL, June 2.—Arthur Scherrell, a colored convict from San Quentin penitentiary, who escaped yesterday morning from Sheriff Thomas Keating, was captured late last night by William E. Allen, one of the posse, while guarding the Puerto Suello hill, about one mile north of San Rafael. The convict escaped from the office of Sheriff Keating through an open window when the sheriff stepped into an adjoining room to answer a telephone.
Allen was helping E. H. Steinbeck of Petaluma fix the lights on his automobile when he saw the fugitive approaching him at a trot. He continued working on the lights until the convict was abreast of him. He then suddenly pointed the gun at the fugitive and he surrendered immediately. When brought back to San Rafael Scherrell told Sheriff Keating that he had been hiding within one hundred yards of the courthouse all afternoon and only attempted to escape after nightfall.
Scherrell was to have been tried for assault to commit murder on Madison Lewis, another convict, April 20.

A state-wide search was instituted at the time of the girl's disappearance. When she came to Mrs. Hooper's residence last night she was penniless and hungry.
This is the second time the child has disappeared. On November 21 she left home following a reprimand and returned three days later.

BOSTONIAN TO WED NAVAL OFFICER.

News of a pleasing nature to their many friends is the engagement of Lieutenant Richard Rowles and Miss Jeanne Frances Mauriere of Boston, announcement of which was made at a luncheon given by Miss Mauriere to sixteen of her girl friends at her home on Wednesday last.

Little Miss Doris Richardson, a cousin, garbed in a gown of pink organdie and carrying a basket garland with sweet peas beneath which the betrothal cards were concealed, imparted the news by presenting each guest upon arrival with a card announcing the happy event.
The bride-elect, who is one of the prettiest and most attractive of the exclusive Somerville colony, is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, and has shown exceptional talent at the various amateur theatricals in which she has participated where her singing and playing have made her a favorite.
Lieutenant Rowles, at present assigned to the U. S. S. Sylvania as navigator and gunnery officer, is well and favorably known in Boston, where for years he was prominent in the civil and military life of the city and state. During the war he was attached to the naval transport Manchuria, which made an enviable record in transporting troops to France.

No date has as yet been set for the wedding but it is expected that it will take place in the early autumn at St. John's, Jamaica Plain, with a wedding trip from coast to coast which will include stopovers at all interesting points along the route.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Rountree of Berkeley, with their daughter, Miss Gracelia, and son, Walter, have taken a house in Ross for the summer and will close their home on Piedmont avenue tomorrow.

Miss Rountree was a member of this year's graduating class at the University of California where she took a leading part in college affairs as president of the Associated Women Students. The Rountree home in Marin county will be the scene of many house parties of college folk during the summer months as Walter Rountree is also a student of the university.

Goldman Exonerated by Bar Assn. Charges

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—District Court of Appeal today exonerated Attorney Teim Goldman

tude conferred by the Bar Association in connection with an induction into the Academy of Achievement. Accident Commission suit involves his father, I. Goldman of Oakland. The court held that there was evidence of improper conduct on the part of the veterinary staff, and that the blame for the situation rested on the accusation against him of shoulders of an Oakland stock man, whom it characterizes "maddier" and who is represented probably having an ulterior plot in making trouble.

I. Goldman employed A. P. I. in an Oakland carpenter to do work for him, having suffered a truck accident, and he had been

Later there were further questions from Italy. Goldman claimed to be satisfied that the injury occurred while the carpenter was actually at work on his job. Nonetheless, the Industrial Accident Commission awarded Italy $1290, which was to be deducted the already paid Goldman settlement of $800 and filed a decree of satisfaction with the commission.

THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1921.

THE REORGANIZED GOVERNMENT.

Governor Stephens has approved eight laws enacted by the last legislature by which some seventy-five commissions and boards are to be consolidated under seven departments. They represent the Governor's idea of the fulfillment of his pre-election pledge of efficiency and economy in the State administration. Whether the result will coincide with the popular conception of what economy and efficiency should be remains to be seen.

So far as economy is concerned, there is slight ground for the hope of substantial reductions in governmental costs by reason of these new laws. The State's experts figure that a saving of about $300,000 is possible for the biennial period. But since the appropriations for the biennium voted at the last session of the legislature amount to over $81,000,000 and represent an increase of over $20,000,000 compared to the previous fiscal period, this prospective saving is insignificant. But it will be welcome, however sharply it fails to justify expectations built upon previous pledges.

As to efficiency, there ought to be more of it than known in the past. Consolidation of the four-score boards and commissions into seven departments, with responsibility centered in the head of each department is a sound step, theoretically. There have been few eliminations of governmental agencies, as the small saving possible indicates. Most of the old boards have been incorporated into the new departments, some of them under new designations and others retaining their old names. But coordination of work and centralized direction ought to result in an improvement in service, other circumstances being favorable.

There is one drawback to the hope that greater efficiency will result. That is in the fact that the new laws work to bring the appointive power into firmer control by the governor and the men he selects to head the several departments. The State administration will be in a position to exert more effective political control over the employees than formerly. There is a law seeming to preserve the principle of civil service, but there are many who have studied the whole group of reorganization acts who fear that the political machine will be greatly strengthened.

However, the laws are now on the statute book. They will become effective shortly. The Governor soon will start the work of reorganization. Whether they will prove better laws than those now existing, whether the government will give better and less expensive service under the new system than the old, will largely depend upon the beginning which the Governor makes; and also upon the measure of cooperation which the State officials and employees and the general public give.

It is best that we accept the new program with confidence and in good faith, so that it may be given a fair trial. If it fails to show the results demanded, then it will be necessary for the people to try some other means of introducing reform.

FRANCE WILL PAY.

Former Premier Viviani of France, who came to this country recently as a special envoy to acquaint President Harding with certain facts of the conditions in France and with certain aspirations of the French government, is quoted as saying that France will pay her debts regardless of what Germany does.

France is solvent and at work, she is industrially solid. She will get out of her present financial difficulties. The process of liquidation will be slow, tedious and hard, but France will make the grade, according to Viviani.

One of the encouraging features is that since the first of the current year France has been exporting slightly more goods than she has been importing. In other words the balance of trade has turned in her favor, a condition that is very largely due to the fact that, despite the apparent strain in the relations with Germany, France has been selling large quantities of goods to her neighbor on the Rhine.

This is profitable business, because France can make quick and steady deliveries and will also get a return for the service of transportation. France has good business management and the capacity for hard work. It is only necessary that she keep busy.

INDIA COMMANDS ATTENTION.

There are several fountains from which spring the unusual interest that has followed the appointment of Earl Reading and his assumption of his official duties as Viceroy of India. It is doubtful if the three corners of the world—Europe, Islam, Africa and Asia and the North American Continent—has paid so much general attention to any official act of one nation as it has to the selection of Lord Reading to preside over the destinies of the people of India.

In the first place India has come forward for more notice by the casual students of world affairs than it has ever commanded before. The reports—most of which have been greatly exaggerated, by the way—of growing popular unrest and the spirit of revolt against British dominion, the regrettable Amritsar incident and the repeated threats of Russian Bolsheviks to agitate India, have been large factors in this interest. Then, above all, perhaps, is the sobering thought as to the wherefore and the why of this spectacle of 320,000,000 people of so rich and varied a country as India, with all the imperishable traditions of one of the oldest civilizations in the world, under subjection to an alien government several thousand miles away. How long will the situation continue?

The United States has a more lively interest than ever because India was the recipient of some 300,000,000 ounces of silver from the national treasury during the war, when our silver dollars were melted up and sent to India to stabilize the rate of exchange and help to keep India raw products moving toward Europe, where they were needed to win the war. It is recalled also that Lord Reading was special British ambassador at Washington for a part of the war period, which gives a personal touch to the new interest in the India Viceroy which has not been felt since the first American vicerine, Lady Curzon (formerly Miss Daisy Leiter of Chicago) went to Bombay.

Then there is the religious factor. Lord Reading is the first Jew to be Viceroy of India, and there has been much speculation as to whether his appointment would not provoke religious differences that would best be avoided. It is a consoling fact, however, that these speculations and all the expressions of distrust have come, not from the Mohammedans or Hindus of India, but from the English Tories. The Tory press and politicians have been the chief fomenters of doubt regarding the propriety of sending a Jew to govern India. Yet the whole British empire had no more able citizen to select for this post than Lord Reading, no one with more industry, imagination and talent for searching deliberation and wise decision. One experienced British official in India has written home that the religion of the new viceroy will excite little interest in India except among the inhabitants of European descent; the Mohammedans will incline rather to the Jew than to the Christian, and the toleration of the Hindus is inexhaustible.

Since Lord Reading's assumption of his duties, unusual quiet seems to prevail in India. There is a movement among the agitators of revolt to carry on a policy of non-cooperation with the new measures of reform which have been promulgated, but even this is not unanimous, some of the most conspicuous of the India home-rulers accepting the new concessions heartily. The situation is one to excite the imagination. The dramatic racial, religious and political history, the many explosive factors of the present, the great possibilities for new achievements, as well as the dangers of disaster, command the unceasing attention of the student.

At a meeting at which there were present eighty Oakland business men the presiding officer requested all of those who understood the alternative proposal for city and county government to rise and just thirteen responded. One of the thirteen, when called upon to enlighten the other sixty-seven, started his remarks with the admission that he did not know much concerning the subject. And yet this organization, without a dissenting voice, put itself on record. If, in the course of events the threat of the little understood alternative proposal is carried out and the county is divided into three or four separate units, there may come a realization of how valuable would have been a little understanding of the subject.

At last the national budget law has been passed by Congress and is before the President for his signature. Very shortly now the government ought to find itself on a modern business basis, with a system in vogue that will enable the government to keep its expenditures within its income. There should be no more deficits in ordinary times. There should be no duplication of appropriations, and there should be definite responsibility and accountability among all the officials of the government.

Bolshevik Russia contains quite a number of American radicals who are homesick. Thus one commendable quality of Bolshevik Russia is indicated.

Neither are we interested in this episode of a man who spent a million dollars on a show girl and finds himself in the divorce courts.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

Modesto adds a good big sum every month to its treasury through fines made possible because of its prohibition enforcement ordinance. As it seems that Merced must be afflicted with bootleggers and the constant plaint of the trustees is lack of coin, why not make them pay their way and perhaps get enough to buy that street sweeper? An enforcement ordinance such as the majority of other cities have would do the work.—Modesto Star.

Monterey continues to be an exporting center for abalones to different parts of Central California. Santa Cruz is a good market for abalones from the other side of the bay and the number sold here is surprisingly large. The abalones at Monterey are gathered in deep water by Japanese divers, and the general cleanliness of the water makes it possible for them to work under water to better advantage than would be possible in the beds located off the Santa Cruz county coast.—Santa Cruz News.

HIGHEST and LOWEST POINTS IN THE WORLD.
The difference between the highest and lowest points of land in the United States is 14,777 feet, according to the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior. Mount Whitney, the highest point, is 14,501 feet above sea level, and in Death Valley there is a depression that lies 276 feet below sea level. These two points, which are both in California, are less than 90 miles apart. This difference in height is small, however, as compared with the difference in the height and depth of land in Asia. Mount Everest rises 29,002 feet above sea level, whereas the shores of the Dead Sea lie 1280 feet below sea level, a total difference in height of 30,282 feet. Mount Everest has never been climbed.

The greatest depth yet found in any ocean is 32,083 feet, the depth at a point about 40 miles north of the island of Mindanao, in the Philippine Islands. The bottom of the sea at this point is therefore more than 11 1/4 miles below the summit of Mount Everest.

ANOTHER WALL TO BE TORN DOWN.

AUSTRIAN TYROL

'Austrian Tyrol, the most mountainous part of Austria, which voted unofficially recently to join itself to Germany, is described in the following bulletin issued from the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the National Geographic Society:

"Tyrol is a second Switzerland, about equally mountainous, though not quite so well known to the tourists of the outside world. Still as the home of snow-capped peaks, deep valleys and sturdy, yodeling peasants, it had its meed of fame among those who search out the beauty spots and scenic localities of the world. And to the Austrians themselves it was the pleasure ground par excellence. In the care-free days before the outbreak of the World War 350 Tyrolean health resorts and recreation centers were listed. Emperor Francis Joseph, who was an ardent mountain climber, had a summer palace at Isch in Tyrol and at other places in that mountainous region he maintained hunting estates and lodges which he considered the finest in Europe.

"But Tyrol of today is far different from the Tyrol of ten years ago. Then the region under Austrian control extended far south of the main crest of the Alps almost to the plains of northern Italy. This southern region was known as Trentino to the Italians and was one of the most important parts of 'Italia Irredenta.' When the victorious Allies wrote the Treaty of St. Germain which closed the war with Austria, the Italian border was moved north to the position claimed by the Italians for centuries; and so more than half of the old Tyrol was lopped off.

"The present Austrian Tyrol is a region of approximately the area of Connecticut and with a population of less than half a million. While the old southern Tyrol, on the south slopes of the Alps and exposed to the sun and the warm winds of Italy, has a rather mild climate, the part which has remained to Austria, north of the highest mountains, has rigorous climatic conditions. In some years hardly a month is free from frost, and heavy snow covers much of the ground for seven months of the year. The pasturing of cattle on the Alpine meadows is the principal industry, but sparse crops of rye and oats are raised throughout the arable portions of the country.

"The main water-shed of the Alps which now marks the southern boundary of Tyrol, is the linguistic as well as the logical geographic boundary. To the south, even under Austrian domination, Italian or a mixed patois in which Italian predominated, was the language in general use. To the north, however, the country had been thoroughly Germanized since the fifth century. The doorway between these Latin and Teuton worlds is the Brenner Pass, famous since the Roman legions used it in passing north to conquer the barbarians. Since 1867 a railroad has traversed it.

"On the west, Austrian Tyrol in effect is bounded by Switzerland, though the westernmost part of the region is called Vorarlberg. It is governed with Tyrol. To the north lies the southernmost country of Germany, Bavaria. Eastward Tyrol is bordered by other of the few remaining provinces of Austria.

"Innsbruck, situated at about the center of the present Tyrol, is its capital. With its population of approximately 60,000, it was the largest city in the old Tyrol. Most of the other cities of any size, were in Italian Tyrol. Bozen, Rovereto and Trent. The latter city, with a population of 30,000, though in what was Austrian territory before the World War, was almost wholly Italian in language, architecture and the names of streets, buildings and pub-

Fifty delegates attend the eighth annual convention of the California Bankers' Association at the Hotel Vendome, San Jose.

A LESSON TO EMPLOYEES.
Stockholders of the great Pennsylvania railroad system must accept a dividend reduced to 4 per cent a year because, in common with other railroads, that system has suffered financially under government control and the burdens that were left when that control was withdrawn.

The stockholders—they number about 135,000—cannot protest. They cannot strike, and striking would not do them any good if they could resort to it. And they do not clamor for arbitration. The company hasn't money to pay more than the reduced dividend. Therefore the 135,000 who have money invested in that railroad property are compelled, by conditions beyond their control and at present beyond the control of the company, to submit to the reduction of return upon their money, the equivalent of the wages that are paid to those who give service instead of money, until financial conditions have been bettered and more money becomes available.

There ought to be a lesson in this for employees who are reasonable, and think.—Albany Journal.

IN SCRAPPY NEW JERSEY.
The forces are taking their places in line for the great battle of July 2. The American Legion speakers announce their backing of Cooper because he fought in the war and Dempsey didn't.

The veterans of foreign wars back Dempsey because they think an American should be backed against any foreigner.

The clergy of New Jersey roost Governor Edwards for permitting too tight a control.

The governor tells them if they don't like the state they can move out of it.

The clergy retort that this is just the sort of reply to be expected from one who is at the head of a state which is "as wet as the Atlantic ocean."

All this six weeks before the election claims for round one.—Worcester Telegram.

MAN WHO FOUGHT AGAINST AMERICA TO BE DEPORTED

Filing of Homestead Application Bares Forfeiture of Citizenship.

After he had forfeited his rights as a United States citizen by fleeing back to his former home in Austria during the war, where he fought against American soldiers in some of the biggest battles of the world war, Oscar Praeger von Windshagen, a former gardener of Oakland, returned to this country and filed a homestead entry at Ukiah, according to federal reports.

Today, after the man's record had been checked up and it was found that dates did not tally, orders came from Washington providing for his deportation to Austria, on the grounds that he had forfeited his rights as a citizen by fighting against the flag.

Before the war Von Windshagen received citizenship papers. After war was declared he disappeared and it was later learned by the government that he had returned to Austria.

After the war the former gardener managed to secure a passport and returned to this country.

He will be deported immediately, according to government officials.

Lawyer Is Held On Narcotics Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Attorney Raim Ewell, arrested on a charge of smuggling narcotics to a federal prisoner in the county jail, was held to answer by United States Commissioner Knott today. Bonds were fixed at $3000.

Fred Thomas, a client of Ewell's, is the man to whom the drugs are alleged to have been smuggled. Ewell wanted him called to the stand, saying he was ready to contradict his previous accusations against the lawyer.

Thomas appeared and declared that he had signed a statement that his charges against Ewell were untrue, but he only did so because the lawyer kept pestering him. He declared that Ewell was guilty. Deputy marshals corroborated his statements.

Held on California Oval in the university campus, the meet was participated in by both boys and girls. Rooters from the various schools in colorful attire added to the enthusiasm of the event while music was furnished by the joint intermediate school band under Earl Morton.

Miss Violet Richardson, physical education director of the schools, directed the meet, while city and school officials, business men and club women acted as scorers and judges.

First place in the meet was won by Edison school with 183 1/2 points. Willard school came second with 140 points, Gardfield third with 82 points and Burbank fourth, 67 1/2 points. Honors for posture in the marching contest, which opened the meet with a parade of the juvenile athletes, went to the Willard school.

Broad jumps, relay races, 50 and 100-yard dashes, basketball and baseball throwing, with standing jumps for the girls, formed the varied program offered. Girl athletes wore bloomers and middie or black "gym" suits as their track costumes.

CARPENTIER WAS LUCKY TO WIN FROM GUNBOAT SMITH

DEMPSEY THINKS HE WILL GIVE THE CUSTOMERS ABOUT FOUR ROUNDS FOR THEIR MONEY

TECHNICAL FOUL GAVE GEORGES FIGHT OVER SMITH IN THE SIXTH

Knocked the Gunner D down in Fourth, Proving That He Had a Stiff Wallop Then.

By JAMES J. CORBETT,
Former World's Heavyweight Champion
(Written expressly for the International News Service)
(Copyright, 1921, by International News Service)

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 2.—The bout between Georges Carpentier and "Gunboat" Smith in London, just before the outbreak of the war, has been the subject of much argument.

Carpentier won this bout on a foul in the sixth round, getting the award from Eugene Corri, one of the world's greatest referees. Smith and his handlers made loud protest over the decision and after the contest, expert opinion at the ringside varied regarding the fairness of it. Be that as it may, Carpentier was declared the winner.

Had this bout not been interrupted by a foul there is no telling how it might have ended, though Carpentier was in excellent shape and apparently was winning when the end came. In the fourth round Georges felled Smith with his left and sent him right crashing against the gunner's jaw. Down went Smith like a log and he was still down when the bell saved him. In the fifth Smith revived sufficiently to come back strong at the Frenchman, but Georges was all confidence and from all accounts simply toyed with his man.

In the sixth round a queer thing happened. Carpentier, according to his own version, missed a heavy right and fell to his knees. Before he could rise, he says, Smith, who had started a blow, hit him in the back of the head with such force that his nose was smashed on the ring floor. Corri then gave the decision to Carpentier.

The important incident in this fight, however, was Carpentier's knockdown of Smith in the fourth round. At that time Smith was a dangerous man for any one to fight. He was rugged and he could sock. One of his blows, landing squarely, would have put any man to sleep. His main fault was that he was very slow, yet his slowness did not offset the dangerous quality of his punch in the least.

Smith outweighed Carpentier by many pounds, yet Georges dropped him for a long time with one lightning-like punch. Any boxer who can do this can hit and Georges, as I have said before, has plenty of poundage behind his punches. He is big enough to fight anybody.

Carpentier's most recent bouts with Beckett and Levinson are of little or no import except that he demonstrated on these two fights that he apparently lost none of his punching power during his period of service in the world war and on July 2, Dempsey will face Georges at his best.

The beating which the Seals suffered at Salt Lake yesterday was almost as bad as the ones they handed the Oaks on Decoration Day.

Charley Pick, the Coyotes' third sacker, is going wild with the baseball bat these days. He made a big gain in the batting averages last week, and yesterday he gathered a homer and two singles in three times at bat.

That fan who teased Rocky Middleton at Sacramento must have got quite abusive for it is seldom that he shows his temper. He must have a good reason first.

Old Sam Crawford hit a triple, double and single, besides scoring three runs for the Angels yesterday.

Truck Hannah hit four out of five for the Tigers.

Charley Graham must be well pleased with the way that Joe Mauer, Schick and Fitzgerald are working in the outfield, for he benched Mauer yesterday to make room for Bert Ellison.

"Don" Brown got three more hits for the Bees, one going for two bags.

TURNBERRY, June 2.—Miss Janet Jackson, the Irish champion, defeated Mrs. Alan MacBeth of Hesketh at 15th hole in play in the British ladies open golf championship tournament today.

LONDON, June 2.—American tennis players who are competing in the world's championship hard court tournament in St. Cloud, France, will come to London immediately after the close of the matches there and will enter the open tennis tournaments to be played at Beckenham, June 6 to June 11, and at Rochampton, June 13 to June 18, says the London Times.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Reports from England, where the United States English poloists are practicing for the international matches this month, have contained accounts of injuries which may necessitate possible changes in both line-ups. An injured elbow suffered by Captain MacLean and a back strain by Louis E. Stoddard have caused most concern in the polo following here.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 2.—The Yale-Harvard variety race on the Thames river, June 24, will be rowed down stream at 5 o'clock (standard time). Frank V. Chappelle, chairman of the regatta committee, announced yesterday.

Another pitched Brooklyn to a 5 to 4 win over the Braves. Johnston and Oles hit two each for the Dodgers.

Bodily Health Depends on

Your Blood Supply

When your blood is impure your body and brain are poisoned just as truly as if you had swallowed some dangerous drug, for the harmful waste material that should be cast off is still in your blood. If your blood cannot be bright and active, mentally alert or healthy; if you are dull and listless, if you are old and alive, if you are prey to almost any disease that lodges in your system.

The old saying, "Blood is Life," is true, indeed. If you want supreme health and vitality, be sure your blood is pure, free from poisons, and rich in red corpuscles, all of which can be obtained by taking S.S.S., the time-tested vegetable remedy famous for fifty years as a blood tonic and alterative. Thousands all over the world testify to its worth.

Get S.S.S. from your drug store, or write to S.S.S. Co., 123 N. 4th St., St. Paul, Minn. S.S.S. is a blood tonic and alterative. Thousands all over the world testify to its worth.

CARPENTIER AND DEMPSEY BOTH FOND OF ANIMALS

Take a peek at JOHN HARRISON DEMPSEY, A. S. (honorary). In the upper picture.

About a week ago "Sophie Gineburg" suffered a mysterious accident and was badly cut. Sophie is Jack Dempsey's mascot—half wolf and half puppy dog. And when not busy training at his Atlantic City quarters, the world's champ has been nursing his injured pup. Sophie is convalescing satisfactorily and so far as is known no action has been taken by the S. P. C. A. about the dog's name.

One or two people may not recognize the face in the lower picture—so let's write his name in full: MONSIEUR GEORGES CARPENTIER, heavyweight champion of France, and aspirant to the world's crown. The big black wolf in his arms is "Phil," Georges' pet-dog pup. And one glance at Phil's expression convinces one that he is certain his adored lord and master will win and that his mighty proud to be the pet of so great a fighter. The picture was taken at Manhasset this week.

Up to fashion bounds—spot the picture of Georges Carpentier's feet. (Hot dog)

HERE IS HISTORY OF HEAVYWEIGHT DIVISION

Back to the days when fighters fought with bare fists, with the ring fenced on the turf in some secluded spot where the contest could be witnessed by a few, if any, we must go back that far to take up the history of the heavy-weight division of which Jack Dempsey is king today.

More than a hundred years ago, in 1616, Jack Iyer was the first of the first heavyweight champions. He fought his first fight and was known as Country McCloskey, became the first really recognized champion. He was defeated by John C. Heenan at Long Island Point, Canada, and afterward, later becoming a Congressman, Heenan claimed the title in 1817 the same Yankee Sullivan, believed he could defeat Iyer, challenged him in sixteen rounds at Rock Point, Md. Iyer later retired because he could not find an opponent and Sullivan then claimed the title and held it for a short time when he, too, quit the ring.

HEENAN VS. BAYERS
1852, John Morrissey defeated George Thompson in eleven rounds at Star Island, Cal. Six years later defeated John C. Heenan at Long Island Point, Canada, and afterward, later becoming a Congressman, Heenan claimed the title in 1817 the same Yankee Sullivan, believed he could defeat Iyer, challenged him in sixteen rounds at Rock Point, Md. Iyer later retired because he could not find an opponent and Sullivan then claimed the title and held it for a short time when he, too, quit the ring.

THE SULLIVAN-CORBETT FIGHT
Sullivan held the title until James J. Corbett beat him by a knockout in twenty-one rounds at New Orleans in 1892, his best fight in the meantime being against Jake Kilrain, whom he beat in seven-fifty rounds at Richburg, Miss., in 1889. This fight was the last of the American heavyweight championship contest in which big gloves were used.

Corbett held the title until 1897, when he lost it to Bob Fitzsimmons at Carson City, Nev. In fourteen rounds, Fitzsimmons defeated Corbett, losing his crown to James J. Jeffries at Coney Island June 9, 1899, who held the title until 1906, when he retired.

The historians of pugilism generally credit Jim Jeffries with being the first American heavyweight champion with a clean claim to the world's championship, but Jim Corbett has a good claim. The history of the division since Jeffries' time is well known.

Jeffries refereed a battle between Marvin Hart and Jack Root, won by Hart, in 1905, and presented the title to Hart, who later was defeated by Tommy Burns in a twenty-rounder at Los Angeles. Burns lost the title to Jack Johnson in four rounds at Sydney, Australia, in 1908, and in 1915, after seven years as champion of the world, Johnson lost it to Jess Willard at Havana, Cuba.

Jack Dempsey, the present incumbent, defeated the mighty Willard at Toledo in three rounds July 4, 1919.

Carpentier Has Fighting Face, Says Veteran

Jack McAniff Thinks That Georges Looks Better Than He Did.

By JACK McANIFF,
(Retired, Undeclared Lightweight Champion)
(Written for the United Press)

MANHATTAN, June 2.—"I don't think Georges Carpentier looked very bad to me when he arrived from France several weeks ago. I said at that time that he was greatly in need of a rest and evidently he got it, for he looks 100 per cent better now. He has a better color, having lost that pasty hue in his face that probably was the after effects of a long period of seclusion. He is more cheerful, has more life and is in better shape all the way around."

The Frenchman seems less nervous since he has become accustomed and acquainted with his surroundings. One thing that has struck me about the challenger is his rather striking resemblance to the original Jack Dempsey, the old champion. This is especially marked around his eyes and nose.

Carpentier has the fighter's eye. Most of all of the ring's greats had small sharp eyes that look almost cruel when they are looking at an opponent. Carpentier has just that look in the ring but not as pronounced as in the old Dempsey.

GOLF

DEL MONTE, Cal., June 2.—Announcement is made for the annual Independence Day golf tournament at Del Monte. It will take place this year on July 2 to 4. There will be a qualifying round of 18 holes all day on Saturday which falls on the second, and two rounds of match play are scheduled for the men on each of the following two days. There will be flights of sixteen. The women are to have a match play tournament with flights divided into 8's. It is expected that the Del Monte club will have a number of entries and a match play tournament with flights divided into 8's. It is expected that the Del Monte club will have a number of entries and a match play tournament with flights divided into 8's.

The Pacific Coast Paper trades convention staged a golf tournament at Del Monte as the most important of its entertainment features. Frank Dewey of the Sequoia Club acted as handicapper and brought about some close matches. George W. San Francisco defeated Frank Stratford of the Claremont Club on the 9th for the honors of the first flight. M. H. Higgins of San Francisco defeated Arthur Nelson of Los Angeles 2 and 1 in the second flight. Frank Stratford and Glen Duncan took the low net with 88-10-7. Sam Levinson of San Francisco took the third place with a record was a dice-shaped clock. In presenting Levinson with the prize it was pointed out that he was a ward for his ability at American golf as well as the royal and ancient pastime.

Chinese Athletes Win the Olympic Games

SIANGHAI, June 1.—China came out of the Oriental Olympic games which closed here today, with the highest record. The Chinese and the Philippine Islands were the chief contenders. China won the pentathlon, basketball, volleyball and football championships.

The Philippine team won the track meet and swimming. The Japanese and Philippine teams each defeated China, but lost when Japan and the Philippines met.

Jack Predicts Four Rounds Will End It

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 2.—Champion Jack Dempsey, anxious to resume his conditioning for his match with Georges Carpentier, yesterday violated the orders of his manager, Jack Kearns, who had prescribed four days of idleness for him. It was learned today, Jack slipped away from his camp and did about five or six miles on the road, but he did not allow the inactivity of the camp in the absence of Kearns, who is in New York, to lure him into social frolics. One of his friends telephoned him that they were coming to visit him and Jack avoided them by taking a long motor trip.

The title-holder broke his silence on the possible outcome of his fight July 2, when a friend asked him point blank if he would knock out Carpentier.

"I have a hunch that I will," he replied laughingly, "and if I'm feeling good that day the fight will be over inside of four rounds."

Champ Showing Early Signs of Restlessness

Which Means That He Is Just Spoiling for a Fight Now.

By SID MERCER
(Written for the International News Service)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 2.—The task of keeping Jack Dempsey mentally fit through the restless days prior to the big fight at Jersey City requires more judgment and tact than the comparatively simple processes of conditioning him physically.

Dempsey is today where he should be about ten days prior to the battle. Physically, he is in mid-season and a few days of intensive training will melt it off. When he steps into the ring at Boyle's "Thirty Acres" Dempsey will be physically fit, but what will he be mentally? Some say that and some say that.

Without pretending to possess occult knowledge of what effect the undoubted strain of the next thirty days will have on the champion's mind, we venture that we will pass through the nervous stage some time within the next twenty days and be the Dempsey of Toledo when he faces the Frenchman.

Already there are many little evidences of Jack's irritability. He hasn't shown any peevishness in his public workouts or in his association with the newspapermen at now and then he gets fussed up about little things that ordinarily would not concern him. Don't imagine that he is a crab, or anything like that, for he isn't. Perhaps no champion ever stood the marketing time process better than Dempsey.

"Official" French View Optimistic

PARIS, June 2.—The "official" view in France is that Georges Carpentier will win the fight with Jack Dempsey. The head of the information department of the foreign office was today asked to press the opinion of the government officials on the result of the forthcoming fight. He replied that Carpentier will win with his hands in his pockets.

This is evidently the French equivalent of an American phrase, "win hands down."

Challenger in Good Condition; Stepping Fast

Frenchman Not Worried Over Coming Battle With Dempsey.

By JACK VEROOK,
International News Service Sports Editor

MANHATTAN, June 2.—"Georges Carpentier took up a great deal of time today, for his first real workout with members of the press following on Wednesday afternoon. In his warm-up, Carpentier showed a sharp and very sharp session with sparring partners. He was in a very good condition and those who saw him were very favorably impressed."

Things can be said of Georges today.

He is in excellent physical condition and is in a very good state of mind, showing no evidence of wear or of coming battle with Dempsey.

Reporters of his speed and hitting ability were not disappointed. He was in a very good condition and those who saw him were very favorably impressed."

Joe Jeannette and Jack Goldberg, a middleweight contender for Carpentier in a four-round session, going two rounds, showed up. Carpentier displayed a very favorable impression on the critics.

As a boxer, Carpentier is fast and sharp. His footwork is one of his greatest assets. He is a fast thinker, a dandy in his best hand. He hits with a double punch. It is delivered as a circle about an opponent, being shot to the mark from a wide angle and while he is on his toes. It is this punch that he will count on heavily when he faces Dempsey.

Jeannette crowded Carpentier every second they were in the ring together and Carpentier let go some vicious punches, often appearing to Jeannette when he landed an extra hard one. Against Goldberg the Frenchman showed up and had he not pulled out the last from Panama, tough and rugged though he is.

Stanford Boys Win Doubles and Singles

MINNEAPOLIS, June 2.—Captain Phil Neer and J. M. Davies, tennis team from the Stanford University, won in both the singles and doubles from Captain Henry Norton and Ben Davis, University of Minnesota representatives, here yesterday.

Neer defeated Norton in the singles, 6-1 and 7-5, while Davies had no difficulty in disposing of Brown, 6-1 and 6-2.

In the doubles the Minnesotans lost 6-0 and 6-3.

The Californians left for Chicago last night where they meet two University of Chicago net stars.

Frankie Munroe Is Pal Moore's Master

SEATTLE, June 2.—Frankie Munroe, Los Angeles bantamweight, outpointed Pal Moore of Memphis, Tenn., in a four-round boxing match here last night. Munroe's aggressiveness won him a shade.

Frankie Rodgers of Seattle won a four-round decision over Young Drew of Los Angeles. They were welterweights.

Who'll Win?

(By United Press) 2.—Tom O'Rourke, veteran manager: "If Dempsey doesn't and the bout in the first round it will be a hummer. This Carpentier is good. I have seen him in action several times. He is very fast, dead game and can hit Dempsey must be good on the defensive because he gives the Frenchman an opening, he is going to feel it."

UNIFORM DRESS
FOR HIGH SCHOOL
GIRLS IS URGEDMrs. Ormsby Characterizes Fad for Fine Raiment As Education Menace.

A uniform dress to be worn by all Oakland high school girls in order to eliminate the menace of one girl trying to outdress the other, was advocated by Mrs. Georgia Ormsby, newly-elected member of the Board of Education, when she spoke before the members of the Progressive Business Men at their regular weekly luncheon yesterday at the Hotel Oakland.

Mrs. Ormsby declared that too many mothers in Oakland want to see their daughters dressed better than other girls, and that through this desire classes are being created in the public school that should not be in existence. She characterized the dressing fad as a "frenzied struggle between mothers to outdress one another." The creation of new dresses of vanity bags—things that are unnecessary, she said—and of gaudy lingerie for their daughters in order that they may be dressed better than other people's children is a menace to the education of the child, she declared, which is being unnecessarily imposed by the mothers.

UNIFORMITY FAVORED.
"A uniformity of dress would eliminate this menace and give the mothers more actual time to spend in the home. It would be a saving to the father, and it would save the girl from growing up burdened with the desire to have something new in the way of clothes every time she appeared in public."

whereby the Board of Education would designate the style of dress or uniform to be worn and every school girl would be compelled to dress accordingly. The dress, she said, should be simple, something that every girl's parents could afford—a dress that would not only be simple but which would be neat and attractive.

EDUCATION IN HOME.
Mrs. Ormsby spoke on "Education in the Home." She declared that ten minutes daily by the parents in close confidence with each child will go more to develop a strong bond of sympathy between child and parent than anything else that can be done. She declared that the school is a child can be made to understand the real purpose for his education and can be made to realize the high ideals of virtue.

The true idea in correcting a child, she said, is not to punish it severely, but to correct its errors and show it where a wrong has been done. A child's conduct should not spring from fear of punishment, but from a knowledge of right and wrong. Every child should be allowed to make its own decision. Facts and the evidence for and against should be presented by the parent, and then the decision should be left up to the child. Too many children, she said, learn to depend upon the decision of their parents instead of using their own judgment, and thereby lose the chance to learn early in life to decide for themselves.

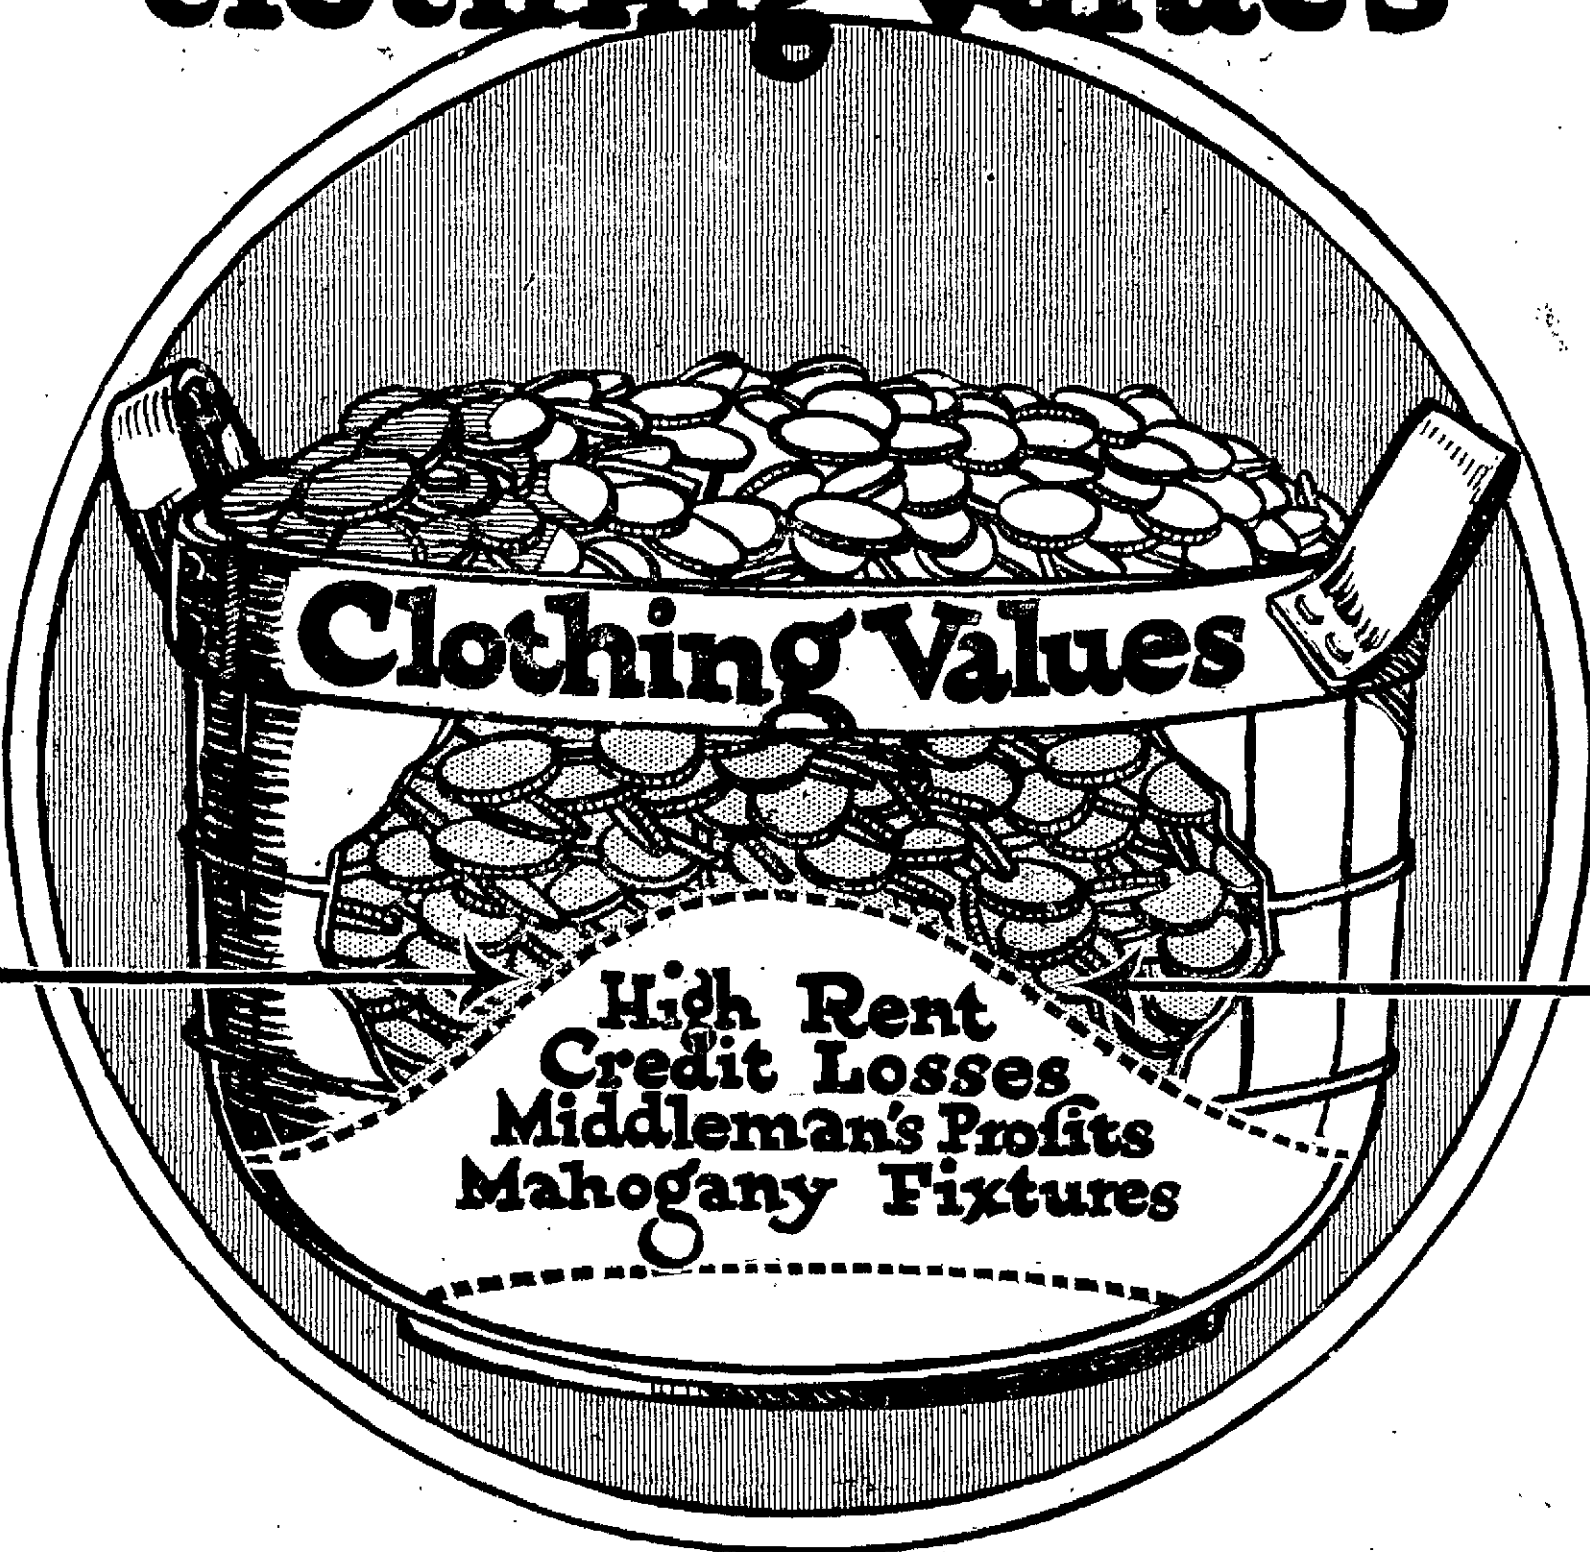

SHOULD STUDY CHILD.
"No money," she said, "are inclined to let their children grow up without attention, other than providing them with money, clothes and books. Every parent should study the child and take a personal interest in its welfare."

There should be at least forty per cent more teachers in the schools in order that each child should have the proper attention according to Mrs. Ormsby. She said:

"There is more money spent each year in the United States on jewelry than is spent on the public school system. It is time we were beginning to give our children the proper advantages. Our teachers are overburdened. They should be given fewer pupils, and then they could expect more from them. As it is, each child gets only a few moments of his teachers' attention during the week, which is not enough."

entertainment, dimes for education and pennies for religion is the way Mrs. Ormsby compared the expenditures for public schools as compared with expenditures for other things.

East and west---north and south---Foreman & Clark upstairs methods are Knocking the false bottom out of clothing values

Humph!
Yes here's the HUMP
in clothing values that costs you $10. to $30!

Remember the old days of Short-weights and false measures? When a bushel-basket seldom held more than 3 pecks?

Those days are still with us—in the clothing business. There is (as yet) no Weights-and-Measures Bureau to condemn false clothing values.

Three pecks will never make a bushel, and high-rent, middlemen's profits, fancy fixtures and credit losses will never make a $30 suit worth $50!

The HUMP that makes a clothing dollar look like 60¢

Knock the hump (the false bottom) out of this basket and its size jumps one-third!

Knock high-rent, credit losses, middleman's profits and all the other extra costs out of a suit of clothes and its value jumps accordingly!

That's what we've been doing—all over America—in our chain of upstairs stores from coast to coast!

Demand full measure for your clothing dollars!

Buying clothes under the methods of the "clothing system" is like buying potatoes in a false-bottom basket! You pay for more than you get. You pay for middle man's profits, ground floor rent, fancy fixtures, credit losses and a lot of other nonsense. Can you afford to? Foreman & Clark methods are fighting these costs. And winning over them! A Foreman & Clark dollar is a full-measure dollar. Foreman & Clark stores—from coast to coast—are knocking the false bottom out of the clothing-value basket! Doing business in the right—in a big way—in a common-sense way—has built our coast-to-coast organization into the largest upstairs clothing business in the world! This business—through this upstairs store—offers you America's greatest clothing values—backed by a $10,000,000 guarantee of satisfaction! There are no values like these (a simple statement of fact—not a boast) because there is no business like this.
